

Report of the World Tourism Day Program
at Amguri College, Amguri
on the 27th of September 2019

World Tourism Day was celebrated at Amguri College, Amguri on the 27th of September 2019

World Tourism Day was celebrated at Amguri College, Amguri on the 27th of September 2019 under the aegis of Sivasagar District Tourism Authority in collaboration with Amguri College Administration. It was anchored by Madhab Das, District Tourism Officer . He was accompanied by Career Management Expert and Educator Mr Ranjan Kr Boruah. The meeting was presided over by Mrs Nilima Boruah, Vice Principal , Amguri College, Amguri

After the felicitation ceremony, Mrs Nilima Boruah dwelt on the significance of tourism, appealing to the students to heartily participate in the celebration making it a successful one. Mr Madhab Das then deliberated on the significance of tourism and thereafter he was joined by Mr Ranjan Kr Boruah who talked about the importance of communication for getting jobs in the tourism sector.

Thereafter, a quiz competition was held wherein the students wholeheartedly participated. The students were questioned on relics and monuments of Sivasagar District, then those of entire Assam. The students were questioned on geographical locations, their significance, photos historical relics and monuments to identify them. Even the teachers too participated wholeheartedly, answering questions. Students were asked questions through three languages namely Assamese, English and Hindi. At the end of the celebration, there took place a group photo session wherein both teachers and students participated. The respective officials before their exit appealed to the students community to keep in touch with the concerned officials for gathering information about higher education and job prospects in the tourism sector spanning entire India.

Some photos of the program

