

Syllabus of the FYUGP English (Dibrugarh University), 2025

Recommended by the FYUGP Board of Studies (English) in the meeting convened on 22.11. 2022, partially revised on 10.02.2023 and 28.05.2024 and on 20.03.2025 at the Department of English, Dibrugarh University

Introduction:

The importance of English as a global language does not require any proof or validation. In the Indian context too, apart from Hindi, English has served as the link language between Indians belonging to different regions, and also with the rest of the world. In a highly digitized, technologically-advanced condition that humans are enmeshed in, English is playing an even greater role in generating, disseminating, and connecting people seamlessly from all walks of life. Therefore, the relevance of English Studies is increasing exponentially. In a radically transforming pedagogical space where acquisition of knowledge needs to be supplemented by (both hard and soft) skills, where the objective of education needs to serve both pragmatic and ethical ends, the strategy for imparting English Studies must necessarily be reconfigured in such a way that it addresses the challenges of 21st century pedagogical demands. Keeping these in context, the FYUP syllabus in English, 2023 has been designed to focus on English Studies from multiple tangents. Literary studies will continue to function as the core component of the syllabus. However, in keeping with the mandate of the National Education Policy 2020 advocating increasing vocationalisation of curricula, several skill-based courses have been designed to enable the learners to have a competitive edge over peers and rivals in crunch situations, like when facing personal interviews, group discussions, or an august audience. A significant number of generic elective courses has also been devised to cater to the needs of learners across disciplines. The syllabus has been framed in such a manner that the learners will be equipped with (i) extensive domain knowledge, (ii) 21st century skills (needed at the workplace), (iii) critical thinking, (iv) problem-solving skills, (v) leadership skills, (vi) creative acumen, and (vii) cutting-edge research skills. These skills will be crucial for the holistic development of the learners, and keeping them up to speed with the demands of a highly competitive knowledge economy of the 21st century.

Preamble:

The FYUGP English syllabus offers a plethora of courses under Major, Minor, Generic Elective, Skill Enhancement, and Research components. Since the National Education Policy 2020 mandates the move towards interdisciplinarity and easing out the hard separation between exact sciences and liberal arts, various courses have been designed that would enable learners from other disciplines to engage with English Studies in many interesting ways. The facility for multiple exit and entry options in the FYUP programme will enable the learners enough breathing space and flexibility to resume their program in protracted steps, or exit with a diploma, a certificate, or a degree. In terms of the content, the core element of English Literary Studies will manifest its presence across six semesters, in that way enabling the learners with comprehensive knowledge on the historical, political, social, literary dimensions of British Literature, Indian Writing in English, American Literature, European Literature, and New Literatures across genres. Apart from literary studies, a number of courses will be pragmatically oriented to enable the learners to acquire necessary skill-sets. The objective of 21st century pedagogy is to ensure that education becomes a means to generate optimum employability, as well as to infuse a spirit of self-reliance and entrepreneurship. Therefore, the FYUP syllabus in English is framed in such a way that it promotes both critical thinking and skilling. The final year of the four-year undergraduate programme will be research-centric. This will enable meritorious learners to pursue doctoral research after completing their undergraduate course in English.

Aims of the Four Year Under-Graduate Programme (FYUGP) in English:

The aims of the Four Year Under-Graduate Programme (FYUGP) in English are:

1. To equip the learners with the historical, political, social, and cultural context of various periods of British Literature
2. To explore English literatures and translated texts from various cultural spaces
3. To enable the learners to understand and interpret literary texts from various perspectives.
4. To develop capabilities of the learners to critically evaluate issues by deploying discourses.
5. To equip students with soft skills so that they can solve problems effectively, assume leadership roles, and so forth.

Graduate Attributes:

Graduate attributes are inclusive of the disciplinary knowledge related to a particular discipline and generic attributes that the graduates of all the disciplines of study should acquire and demonstrate. Graduate attributes of the FYUP in English are:

Disciplinary Knowledge: The graduates should have the ability to demonstrate the attribute of comprehensive knowledge and understanding of the discipline of English. The emphasis on the historical development of English literature across the globe represented by particular texts from various genres should enable the graduates to develop a comprehensive knowledge of the various contexts surrounding the production of texts+. They should be able to read and interpret these representative works as outcomes of interconnectedness between the larger socio-political milieu and the literary representation of the same.

Critical Thinking: The graduates in English are expected to develop critical thinking ability through a philosophical approach in reading the texts and applying them in the analysis of real-life situations.

Research-related Skills: The graduates are expected to develop the attributes of research in English. They should have the basic skills to conduct research by identifying a research problem, exploring research gap, and application of theoretical frameworks in exploring areas of interdisciplinary research.

Reflective Thinking and Problem Solving: A successful completion of the program with its emphasis on skill-based learning should enable the graduates to understand and use their own learning and skills to meet the challenges of everyday life.

Communication Skills: The graduates in English should have the ability to have an effective communication in and outside the classroom. They should be able to demonstrate their thoughts and expressions in clear terms.

Digital Learning and Competence: The graduates should be able to develop digital learning and competence. The use of ICT tools in classroom teaching and the emphasis on digital literacy spread over the skill-based courses are expected to develop awareness among the graduates to attain proficiency in the domain. This would also prepare them for real life situations and challenges.

Teaching Learning Process:

The programme allows the use of varied pedagogical methods and techniques both within the classroom and beyond such as:

- Lecture
- Tutorial
- Power point presentation
- Screening of documentary films and film adaptations of literary texts
- Project Work/Dissertation
- Internship
- Group Discussion and debate
